International Journal of Action Research
Volume 2, Issue 1-3, 2006

Articles

Klaus Dörrre, Klaus Kraemer, Frederic Speidel

Phrónēsis, Aristotle, and Action Research 5-53
Olav Eikeland

Editorial to Issue 2 143-148
Werner Fricke

General Reflections on how to Practice and Train for Action Research 269-282
Werner Fricke

Learning Organisation and the Process of Regionalisation 319-342
Bjørn Gustavsen

Involvement as a Dilemma. Between Dialogue and Discussion in Team Based Organizations 163-197
Marianne Kristiansen, Jørgen Bloch-Poulsen

Dilemmas of Action Research – an Introduction 149-162
Øyvind Pålshaugen

Constructive Practice and Critical Theory: The Contribution of Action Research to Organisational Change and the Discourse on Organisations 283-318
Øyvind Pålshaugen

Participatory Rural Appraisal: Lessons for Countries in the North? 198-221
Julia Preece
Shaping Communities of Work, an Organizational Development Approach 243-263
Michiel Schoemaker

Research on Collaboration in Action 222-242
Sandra G. L. Schruijer

The Responsibility of Governing and the Changes in the Workers’ Party of Brazil 54-77
Emil Albert Sobottka

The Scale of Participation: From Municipal Public Budget to Cities’ Conference 78-97
Danilo R. Streck

Building Socially Responsive Curricula through Emancipatory Action Research: International Contexts 343-374
Myriam N. Torres, Silvia E. Moraes

Book Reviews

reviewed by Catharina Schmalstieg

[Knowledge, Power, and Organization. Internationalization of Industrial Research and Development – a Case Comparison]
reviewed by Sabine Pfeiffer

reviewed by Mario Candeias

On the International Importance of Swedish Research on Work, Organization, and ICT 378-380